A

LIST

OF CERTAIN

BITS OF WOOD,

SOME OF WHICH HAVE

AN INTEREST TO ME FROM ASSO-

CIATIONS WHICH CAN HARDLY AFFORD

MUCH INTEREST TO OTHERS ; WHILE A FEW HAVE

MORE VALUE. THROUGH THE KINDNESS OF

A FAITHFUL FRIEND IT IS PRINTED,

BUT NOT PUBLISHED, AND IS

DEDICATED, WITH MUCH

LOVE AND BY HIS

PERMISSION,

TO

MR. WILLIAM HENRY WETHERILL

BY

THOMAS C. YARNALL, D. D.

3914 Locust Street,
January 7th, 1892.

My Dear Mr. Wetherill:

I send you herewith the Catalogue of Canes which you wished me to make. I thought that I could prepare it better by myself at such times as might suit my convenience than if the aid of a type-writer had been called in. It is probably sufficiently clear for the printer, as well as sufficiently descriptive.

Thanking you for your kindness in securing for my collection a little longer lease of time than would otherwise have been obtained for it, so far, at least, as the record of where the separate component parts came from, I am

Very sincerely yours,

THOMAS C. YARNALL.
